Diagnostic de performance énergétique (DPE)

Recently certified as generating the highest prices in the city, rue Guynemer could be reasonably said to be the most sought after address in Paris.

But perhaps this 166 m2 apartment, overlooking the very grand Luxembourg Gardens from the 5th floor, explains the desirabilty more convincingly than statistics or words can.

It is composed of a large living room, a small dining room, an open kitchen, 4 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms.
Comes with parking in the building.
