It will be perfect for a family looking for proper equilibrium between nighttime and daytime sections.

The reworked floor plan will allow for a huge family style live-in kitchen, a more intimate library/TV room and a more formal Salon for entertaining.

There would then be 3 bedrooms, each with a bathroom and, in the case of the master bedroom, a full suite with walk in closet.

The property is very bright and has all the front rooms looking out onto the boulevard Saint-Germain with much openness.

The neighborhood is extremely desirable. It has some of the best schools in Paris as well some of the most attractive boutiques.
